Volunteer Training

Please check the session you plan on attending. Coming to one is strongly recommended to understand First Night's program, the role you will play and the physical layout. Venues and layout change each year. Volunteer packets, along with event parking passes, will also be distributed at each of these sessions. Complimentary snacks and beverages will be provided. There is plenty of street parking in the area. On Saturday, the lot next to the blue Teacher's Pension building on Olive, west of Grand, will also be available for use with complimentary parking.
